Overcoming Adversity: How To Rebound

What can you do in those deepest and darkest moments of adversity? Coach Doherty shares his experiences in overcoming adversity throughout his life. Every American loves a great comeback story, to see the hero undergoing a trial by fire and come back from it, against all odds – the inspiring come-from-behind-victory. In this talk, Coach Doherty explores the three paths available when faced with adversity and introduces a five-step framework for building a resilient team, everything from pre-planning to training for special situations.

A tip from the Coach, “If you want to be a part of the starting lineup you need a winner’s mindset, step up, and Rebound.”

Leadership Strategies: Leadership is a Learned Behavior

Coach Doherty was sitting in an emotional intelligence class at Wharton when he first read that - “leadership is a learned behavior.” He shares, “This was the most exciting thing I ever read in my life.” Imagine the possibilities after a lifetime of hearing, “Leaders are born, not made,” a prevalent belief in American society. Can leadership skills be learned? Coach Doherty answers with a resounding “YES!” Coach Doherty will share the six principles (or knows) of leadership - STEVIT.
